

somewhat puzzling!
spiritual insight vs blindness prob specialized to money-attitudes, since "evil eye" meant covetousness

God and Mammon (6:24) Mammon is Semitic for money, here personified living for God and living for money are quite inconsistent

Care and Anxiety (6:25-34) don't worry; what you can't control is more important than what you can food and the birds clothing and the flowers your righteousness must exceed the pagans' seek first God's rule and righteousness
He will take care of the rest

True and False Judgement (7:1-23)

Judging Others (7:1-6)
God will not let you get away with a double-standard of judgment He wants you to put your emphasis on straightening out your own life
Some will not appreciate your help

Ask, Seek, Knock (7:7-12)
Keep asking God for what is good Don't be judging His motives Trust Him by doing good to others

The Narrow Gate (7:13-14)
There aren't many who will enter heaven

Tree Known by Fruit (7:15-20)
Use God's yardstick to evaluate teachers
What they do speaks louder than what they say

I Never Knew You (7:21-23)
Many who profess Jesus and even do great things won't enter heaven because of their (other) deeds

Conclusion (7:24-29) / True & False reactions

Two Foundations (7:24-29)

Parable of building applied to our spiritual lives
