

The Lord Completes the Redemptive Work
Matthew 26-28

The foes:	Final Events of Passion Week The Lord:	The Work:
	He predicts 26:1-2
Plan to kill 26:3-5 Judas agrees Price is set	He receives worship 26:6-13 He instructs 26:17-35 --last supper --identification-Judas --warning to Peter	The final rejection of the Messiah is prepared.
Judas betrays 26:49	He prays 26:36-46 He yields 26:47-56 --to the mob	"I delight to do thy will.." "that the Scriptures might be fulfilled." He surrenders
False witnesses :60 Mockers :68 Physical abuse :67	He endures 26:57-75 --Caiaphas --captors --defection	Isaiah 53
Judas remorse 27:4	He is tried 27:1-25 --arraignment 27:1-2 --Pilate's offer 27:17 --national judgment 27:25
The judgment 27:26 The act 27:35	He yields himself 27:26-54 --Simon 27:32 --vinegar and gall 27:34 --crucifixion --the thieves	An offering 27:35 Grace demonstrated
The watch posted 27:62	He is buried 27:55-61 --the tomb 27:60 --the attendants 27:61	Isaiah 53
The lie given 28:11	He is risen! 28:1-10 --the empty tomb --the witness He ascends 28:16-20 --statement of power :18 --a challenge of mission 28:19-20	The proof

The risen Lord, having completed the work, gives the command that it is to be told through all the earth and to all peoples as the good news of the Kingdom of God and the redemptive work of grace.