

least in this life! But what if there is a judgment to come?

The response that we cannot base our most profound beliefs on mere historical evidence (Lessing) misreads the nature of what Jesus has done. He has provided a solution to your deepest need, has given adequate historical and scientific evidence that he is speaking the truth, and is offering you an opportunity to escape ultimate disaster. If you set the level of proof too high, you will have no one but yourself to blame for the result.

What are you going to do with Jesus?
